

"Escape Tonight is a unique mix firmly rooted in Pop Punk sensibilities and the driving chart topping finesse of Alternative Rock. Their debut release will most likely be a Cash Cow for any label that picks them up." - J Rock
Rock Solid Pressure Radio

With their intoxicating blend of precision punk and serpentine classic rock, the band has been compared to everyone from Hot Water Music and Foo Fighters to Bruce Springsteen and Glen Hansard. Florida-based indie rock outfit Escape Tonight is quickly shifting from the underground rock venues to one of the genre's premier commercial and acclaimed alternative rock acts. Formed in St. Pete by singer/guitarist Russell Fama and bassist Rick Herbert, Escape Tonight self released its debut LP, Far From Home, with Grammy award winning producer Joe Quinde, best known for his work with Jay Z and Mary J. Blige. Recorded within three days, the 10-track album was noisy, hook-filled, and was generally well-received. Leading track "Heart from Bone" earned Honorable Mention in Randy Jackson's "Song of the Year" competition amongst 4,000,000 entries, and pop-punk track "A Million" was awarded best sing-a-long song by Rock Solid Pressure Radio in 2011.

"Any venue interested in its patrons having a great time, will be thrilled with Escape Tonight's rock show!"
- Quinton Sheer Q's House Radio

It wasn't until the band was joined by lead guitarist Pete Tremblay, and drummer Danny Bauer that the group began to hone in on the tight, minimalist pop that would become it's rock forte. It is with the bands newly expected EP, Ampersand, that they will go on to carve its niche in the increasingly widening modern rock mainstream, specifically with the vulnerably insightful and boisterous track "Chameleon".

The group is expected to take an even more adventurous approach to their live sound while interacting with fans, and has already been seen on the stage at 98 Rock's St Paddy's Day Block Party, The Sarasota Zombie Pub Crawl, Pelican Pop Fest, Roller Derby Half-Time shows, various industry showcases, and the International Surf Day Competitions. Most recently they have shared the stage with Hoobastank, Face to Face, Paper Tongues, Red Jumpsuit Apparatus, A Wilhelm Scream, Rookie of the Year, Eye Empire, Jonathan Tyler & The Northern Lights, and local favorites Less Than Jake. This increasingly prominent indie rock act will be throughout the state of FL promoting the upcoming release of their new EP, available now.

I could be your dreamer Tonight we'll find what's in your eyes and fall and I could be your ordinary man We'll fall asleep, to find this dream and wake up happily
 This could be our last and final chance to throw away, all this pain and give it the best we can

With all that's in your eyes
 I could fall to pieces tonight
 And I could be your dreamer babe If we fall together, we could get to go on

We should be forever at last we'll climb these heights, until we cannot fall This could be our only true romance we'll run away, to find this dream and wake up happily I could be your dreamer babe if we try, we'll do this right and give it the best we can

All II I change is a part of me
 All we sing it's our symphony

Chameleon

Chameleon, lost in your reflection have you found your own Stay outside, just ignore the weather everywhere you go
 All in all, we can make this better than ever dreamt before, but can you trust your own

For love, and life with all that we live for, survive
 Ignite till all our reasons collide

I can be your only man, but I'm not for sale
 I can wreck this only plan, if you got my name
 I would take you home, you just got to let me know

Love, with all that we die for Explode, Ignite till all our reasons survive
 You just got to let me know

Chameleon, lost in your reflection
 can you find your own All in all, we could dream much bigger than ever gave before but can you trust your own

For love, and life with all that we live for, survive
 Ignite till all our reasons explode Ignite till all our reasons survive Explode till all our reasons collide

Those words you never said they hurt the hardest, and you thought that I didn't know All we ever gave you pushed the furthest, until you could let go

Falling back to yesterday
 and all we knew, is waiting for tomorrow
 Falling back to yesterday
 and all we choose, is waiting for tomorrow

All you kept inside you hid from yourself, and failed to recognize That all your bridges burn they burn - they burn, until you expose all your ashes

If I could survive, all your thunder and it's crashes
 If you would surrender one last time, blindly unearth all your treasures
 With all we kept inside, embers last a long time when choking on your fallen ashes

Falling back to yesterday
 and all he grew, is waiting for tomorrow
 Falling back to yesterday
 and all we choose, is waiting for tomorrow Trippin back on yesterday and all he knew, is waiting for tomorrow Livin up to yesterday and all I choose, is waiting for tomorrow

ESCAPE TONIGHT

Hailing from St. Petersburg FL, founding members Russell Fama & Rick Herbert are now joined by Pete Tremblay & Danny Bauer to complete a newly evolved lineup.

After enlisting new members to expand the musical creation, "Ampersand" reflects the culmination of their progression into a formidable alternative blended rock forte.

Recorded at Morrisound studios in Tampa, FL, their new EP, was named with intentions of a third album in mind.

Frontman Russell Fama's brother, Chris, had a hand in producing their latest EP, "Ampersand".

Escape Tonight's 10-track debut album "Far From Home" was stunningly recorded within 3 days at Old Town Recording Studio in Winston-Salem, NC. Grammy award winning producer Joe Quinde stepped in and took the reins for their debut rock album "Far From Home" after hearing a warm-up session at the studio.

"Heart from Bone" received an Honorable Mention Songwriting Award in the 2011 Song of the Year songwriters competition. The competition received over 4.5 million entries and was judged by John Mayer, Randy Jackson, Alicia Keys, and numerous A&R agents from around the country.

The band has performed at festivals, roller derby half-time shows, and have shared the stage with a number of national acts including Hoobastank, Face to Face, Paper Tongues, Red Jumpsuit Apparatus, Rookie of the Year, A Wilhelm Scream, Eye Empire Jonathon Tyler and the Northern Lights, Death of Paris, And By Love, Call Us Kings and Less Than Jake.

Since 2004, bass player "Voodoo" Rick Herbert has been providing merchandise for bands at Ace high Printing in St. Petersburg, FL.

"The Adventures of Super Russ" is an independent comic series absurdly based upon Russell Fama's attempts to be a rockstar superhero.

Punk track "A Million" was awarded 'Best Sing-a-long Song of 2011' by Rock Solid Pressure Radio.

Escape Tonight has been a featured artist in Vocess Magazine's swimsuit issue of 2011, Dunedin Free Press' 6th annual cover story, Mayhem Magazine, and the "Live and Local Spotlight" in Creative Loafing. Radio appearances included Q's House Radio, Something Planet, and The Rock Solid Pressure Show amongst syndicated FM radio programs.
